an Ithacare community

Statement of Reservation & Admissions Procedures

Longview is a residential community designed for older adults which is operated by Ithacare Center Service Company, Incorporated. Longview will consider and admit applicants without regard to race, color, national origin, creed, religion, or sex. The following information gives a brief outline of our Reservation and Admissions process. Admission to Longview requires that you share with us certain written information. This includes, but may not be limited to, personal, financial, and health information. All information shared with Longview will be held in the strictest confidence and will not be released.

If you are interested in entering Longview, you may join the Reservation List by completing the Reservation Application form and making a refundable deposit of $1,000.00. This deposit maintains your position on the Reservation List to be considered for entry to Longview. Names are placed on the Reservation List in the order of the date the application and deposit are received. You may withdraw your application from the Reservation List at any time. The deposit, with accrued interest, will be refunded within 30 business days upon receipt of a written request from the applicant.

When an apartment does become available, you will be contacted and advised of the location and size of the apartment. At that time, if you are interested in the available apartment, admission forms will be given to you. The admissions forms consist of a Medical Evaluation for your physician(s) and personal history and financial statement forms for you to complete. These admission forms need to be returned to Longview. In addition, you may be asked to come for an admissions interview at that time.

After we receive the admission forms, you will be notified of the admissions decision. The decision to admit or not to admit an applicant is at the sole discretion of Longview. The applicant agrees to accept such decisions as binding and final in all respects.

The monthly fees for Longview are set forth in the fee schedule. Currently, there is an admission fee of $1000.00 and a security deposit equal to one month's rent. These fees are subject to change.
